

Index - Side A

- 0:00 Introduction
- 1:20 Born December 1920, Leyte in the Philippines. Her parents were storekeepers.
- 4:20 July, 1947 she came to the United States with her husband. She met him during the Liberation when MacArthur returned to the Philippines.
- 6:10 Wanted to see the Golden Gate when she first came. She was very lonely.
- 6:50 They lived and worked in the camps because there was no rent. They worked in the pears near where Sacramento State University now is. They then worked in Placerville for a time.
- 8:05 Living in a labor camp was fun, but very lonely.
- 8:50 She had her first daughter while living in a camp in Woodland.
- 9:50 She worked at the Dewitt Casing Co., then Pureta Meat Co. for 17 years. She and her husband worked different shifts to allow them to take care of their children.
- 13:20 She went back to the Philippines to visit her ailing mother. Martial law was in effect at that time.
- 16:35 She was involved in many Filipino organizations.
- 18:10 The American Legion Hall was the center for many of the Filipino activities.
- 19:35 She considers Sacramento home and would only go back to the Philippines for a vacation and not for good.
- 22:20 END